WATER DRIVES BACK RUSSIAN COWARDS

Vasiloff, Biloff and Surupove the three Russians who were arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of vagrancy, and who were responsible for the mob attempting to charge the police last night at the station house, still assumed their independent air this morning when they were brought in police court to answer before Judge Andrade.

The three troublemakers, headed by the self important leader Vasiloff pleaded not guilty to the charge of vagrancy on the grounds that they were employed by the other Russians to look after their interests and were therefore immune from prosecution.

Sheriff Jarrett, Deputy Rose Chief McDuffie, Attorney General Lindsay, Deputy County Attorney Milverton, nearly all the police force off duty, to say nothing of the public who had come just to see what was being enacted in the court of justice, were on hand when the self-styled martyr-leader was called before the bar to plead.

Every precaution had been taken by Sheriff Jarrett to have plenty of men on hand to act in the event of a repetition of last night's attempted jail delivery, but not a single Russian was within the walls or anywhere near headquarters.

Vasiloff was the first of the troublemakers to answer to the charge and during the whole time that he was before the court he kept up an air of martyrdom which was revolting, to say the least, in an American court. When asked by the court through an interpreter what he had to say, he replied that he was not a vagrant, as he was being paid by his fellow countrymen to see that they received justice and right from every one here in Hawaii.

Biloff and Surupove acted in a manner that almost bordered on contempt. At the request of Attorney-General Lindsay their cases were continued until next Tuesday so as to give his department a chance to look up the complete evidence in the case.

Nicola Suerbeive, charged with threatening to kill his wife who, no claims, is a prostitute, pleaded not guilty, and gave as his reason for causing her any annoyance, the fact that she did not give him some of the money she had received.

At the request of the Attorney General the case was continued until next Tuesday.

Although no trouble is expected today by Sheriff Jarrett from the Russians who were quickly dispersed last night by the use of clubs and water, all the available police are on hand in case there is any sign of trouble.

On advice of the Attorney General the present prisoners will be kept in custody until Tuesday morning, as no one knows what might be done if they were allowed to go free or out on bail.

Sheriff Jarrett in talking this morning about the attempted delivery of the leaders last night by the idle Russians, said that he had done everything to persuade the mob to disperse without trouble but as they did not seem to see it in the light that he did he had ordered the men under him to charge the crowd which numbered nearly five hundred, including women and children.

"The men thought that by using the women and children as shields, we would not do anything, but I was determined that they would have to go in spite of the cowardly action of the good-for-nothing men. After the leaders had been safely locked up they started to talk in such tones that I knew that trouble was brewing, and when the crowd arrived I was very much handicapped by not having more men, but, with the few that were there we managed to rout the Russians in a very few minutes with the aid of a good stream of water and some quick work with the long night-sticks.

"I intend to see that the four leaders are not released without proper order of the law, and if another scene like the one last night takes place, revolvers will be used if necessary, as I don't propose to take any chances."

Although there are no serious visible signs of trouble, groups of Russians are gathering along the waterfront and in other parts of town and it is quite possible that they may make another attempt to get their leaders out tonight.

HONOLULU HEARS A GREAT PIANIST.

Madame Carreno enraptured her select audience of music lovers by her piano recital at the Bonine theater yesterday afternoon. Considering the unpleasant conduct of the sea toward her on the voyage, it was indeed very gracious on her part to appear here at all. Mr. Adams, manager of the Hawaiian Opera House, deserves great praise for giving Honolulu the opportunity of hearing so great an artist. A report of the concert appears in today's society news.
